

2007 FESTIVAL FINALISTS

We are pleased to announce the 2007 Festival Finalists!

The following films will be screened at the Stories from the Field film festival on 21-22 April 2007. Scheduling for each film will be posted later in the month. Winners will be announced at the Festival. Our sincere thanks to all who submitted films -- there were over 200! It is never easy to choose the film finalists and this year was no exception. Thank you for sharing your passion with us and congratulations to those whose films were selected.

UNITED NATIONS FINALISTS

Submission # / Film Title

81 - A Future within Reach
79A - Child Labor: Burden of Gold
68 - Congo: The Forgotten War
30 - Fistula in Bangladesh
03 - Gem's Slaves
56 - Home (PSA)
14 - Human Development Report: Kibera
51 - Invaders from the Sea
09 - Kakenya: Against the Odds
91 - Maid in Lebanon
70 - Stolen Childhoods: Child Brides in Ethiopia
69 - Diary of Jay-Z: Water for Life
59 - Villages on the Front Line: Jordan
08 - Wake Up
10B - Women on the Run: Kidnapped Childhood

Films will be screened in The New School's Tishman Auditorium, an Art Deco masterpiece built by Joseph Urban, who also designed the Ziegfeld Theater and the original Hearst Building.

PUBLIC FINALISTS

Submission # / Film Title

2030 - A Different Kind of Gun
2023 - A Killer Bargain
2059 - A Right to Live – AIDS Medication for Millions
2057 - Chernobyl: The Invisible Thief
2084 - Dabla! Excision
2052 - Dirty Job
2086 - Element 2
2038K - Ingenious Africa: Greening Africa (Episode 11)
2038E - Ingenious Africa: Sustaining Africa (Episode 5)
2022 - Kill or Cure: The Forgotten Diseases
2045 - Lumo
2066 - My Sister, My Self
2015 - SASA! A Film about Women, Violence and HIV/AIDS
2021 - Survivor's Guide: Child Refugees
2026 - Survivor's Guide: Girls Education
2062 - Wide Angle: Back to School

Saturday Special Feature - ¡Salud!

Sunday Special Feature - Good Morning, Dangme